20 ~~calendar days following the date the response was filed with the Commission Assistant. The~~ 21 ~~hearing officer may extend the time limitations in this section for good cause. At any time prior~~ 22 ~~to a determination of probable cause, the hearing officer may allow additional material to be~~
23 ~~submitted as part of the initial response or rebuttal.~~

1       (4) If a respondent fails to file a timely response, make a timely request for a probable
2 cause conference, or if the probable cause conference does not timely proceed absent a finding of 3 good cause, as required under subdivisions (d)(1) or (d)(2), the respondent waives the right to 4 further probable cause proceedings under Section 83115.5, and the Enforcement Division may 5 transmit copies of the Probable Cause Report, Request for a Finding of Probable Cause, and
6 Order that an Accusation be Prepared to the Commission Assistant requesting that a hearing
7 officer from the Legal Division find probable cause based on the information provided. Upon a
8 finding of probable cause, the hearing officer will issue an Order Finding Probable Cause and 9 serve it on all parties.

10       (e) Rebuttal. Not later than 14 calendar days following the date the response was filed
11 with the Commission Assistant, Enforcement Division staff may submit any evidence or 12 argument in rebuttal to the response which shall be filed with the Commission Assistant by 13 electronic mail at CommAsst@fppc.ca.gov who will provide a copy to all parties. These are the 14 only briefings to be considered by the hearing officer when making the determination of 15 probable cause.

16       ~~(f)~~ Probable Cause Conference. ~~Any proposed respondent may request a probable cause~~
17 ~~conference. The request shall be served upon the Commission Assistant and all other proposed~~ 18 ~~respondents not later than 21 days after service of the probable cause report unless the hearing~~
19 ~~officer extends the time for good cause. The Commission Assistant shall fix a time for the~~ 20 ~~probable cause conference and the hearing officer shall conduct the conference informally. The~~ 21 ~~conference shall be closed to the public unless a proposed respondent requests, and all other~~
22 ~~proposed respondents agree, to a public conference. If the conference is not public, then only~~
23 ~~members of the Commission staff, any proposed respondent and his or her legal counsel or~~

1 ~~representative~~ the parties named in the probable cause report, their legal counsel or
2 representative and Enforcement Division staff shall have the right to be present and participate.
3 Any party may send a request to the Commission Assistant at least 7 days before the probable
4 cause conference that ~~T~~the hearing officer may allow witnesses to attend and participate in part
5 ~~or all of the probable cause conference. The request shall be sent to all parties. The hearing~~
6 ~~officer.~~ In making this determination, the hearing officer shall consider the relevancy of the 7 witness' proposed testimony, whether the witness has a substantial interest in the proceedings,
8 and whether fairness requires that the witness be allowed to participate. Representatives of any 9 civil or criminal prosecutor with jurisdiction may attend the conference at the discretion of the 10 hearing officer if they agree to respect the confidential nature of the proceedings. If the 11 conference is not open to the public and none of the parties and the presiding officer object, then
12 the conference may be conducted in whole or in part by telephone. The Enforcement Division
13 shall record the probable cause conference shall be recorded. The hearing officer may determine 14 whether there is probable cause based solely on the probable cause report, any responses or 15 rebuttals, filed evidence submitted, and any arguments presented at the probable cause
16 conference by the interested parties. ~~If the hearing officer requires additional information before~~
17 ~~determining whether there is probable cause, he or she may~~ The hearing officer may, based on a
18 showing of good cause, permit any party to submit additional evidence at or after the probable
19 cause conference.

20 (ge) Finding of Probable Cause. ~~The hearing officer may find there is probable cause to~~
21 ~~believe a violation has occurred if the evidence is sufficient to lead a person of ordinary caution~~
22 ~~and prudence to believe or entertain a strong suspicion that a proposed respondent committed or~~
23 ~~caused a violation.~~ A finding of probable cause by the hearing officer does not constitute a

1 finding that a violation ~~has actually~~ occurred. The hearing officer shall not make a finding of 2 probable cause if ~~he or she is~~ presented with clear and convincing evidence that, at least 21
3 working days prior to the alleged violation, the respondent requested written advice from the 4 Commission staff pursuant to Section 83114(b), a time prior to the alleged violation, the violator
5 ~~consulted with the staff of the Commission in good faith~~, disclosed truthfully all the material
6 facts, and committed the acts complained of ~~either~~ in reliance on formal ~~the~~ advice of ~~the~~ 7 Commission staff or because of ~~the~~ Commission staff's failure to provide advice. If the hearing
8 officer makes a finding of probable cause, then the Enforcement Division shall prepare an 9 Accusation pursuant to Section 11503 and have it served upon the person or persons who are 10 subjects of the probable cause finding. The hearing officer shall publicly announce the finding of 11 probable cause. The announcement shall contain a summary of the allegations and a cautionary
12 statement that the respondent is presumed to be innocent of any violation of the Act unless a 13 violation is proved in a subsequent proceeding. The Chief of the Enforcement Division shall be 14 responsible for the presentation of the case in support of the Accusation at an administrative 15 hearing held pursuant to Section 83116.
